TEAM COOLSPACE

Time flies when you're having fun! 2007 is quickly coming to an end and COOLSPACE is excited about keeping even more people cool in 2008. A high quality product, backed with great service and at a fair price is the oldest recipe for success.

Every year COOLSPACE adds new members to their team of Manufacturer Representatives, Dealers and Distributors which is a great sign for the product and the company. In 2008 COOLSPACE will have more locations than ever before both nationally and internationally.

"Teaming up with COOLSPACE has been great because of the quality consistency and the strong support from corporate headquarters"

- Shane McCourt,
